

Nice to Meet You
Getting your paper done is easy when you know the right people

50% OFF ON ALL ORDERS
LIMITED TIME ONLY
PREMIUM QUALITY | NO PLAGIARISM | DEADLINE DRIVEN

ORDER NOW

Title of Your Assignment

Your Name

Course Number & Title

Instructor's Name

Month Day, Year

Need help? View the following tutorial:

Ctrl+Click: Making an Annotated Bibliography

Want to view a sample annotated bibliography?

Ctrl+Click: Annotated Bibliography

Title of Your Assignment

Include the number of sources required for your assignment.
Use the Ashford Online Library to find scholarly sources.

Format for an Online Scholarly Journal Article:

Author, A. (Year Published). Article title. Journal Name, Volume(Issue), page range. doi:# or

Retrieved from journal's homepage URL

In the first paragraph of your annotation, summarize the main points of the source. Be sure to summarize the main points using your own words. Do not copy and paste information directly from the source.

In the second paragraph of your annotation, explain how the source is relevant to your paper. Explain how this particular source will help you develop one or more of the main points in your essay.

Author, A. (Year Published). Article title. Journal Name, Volume(Issue), page range. doi:# or

Retrieved from journal's homepage URL

In the first paragraph of your annotation, summarize the main points of the source. Be sure to summarize the main points using your own words. Do not copy and paste information directly from the source.

In the second paragraph of your annotation, explain how the source is relevant to your paper. Explain how this particular source will help you develop one or more of the main points in your essay.

Include the number of sources required for your assignment.

Format for an Online Magazine:

Author, A. (Year, Month Date Published). Article title. Magazine Title. Retrieved from URL

In the first paragraph of your annotation, summarize the main points of the source. Be sure to summarize the main points using your own words. Do not copy and paste information directly from the source.

In the second paragraph of your annotation, explain how the source is relevant to your paper. Explain how this particular source will help you develop one or more of the main points in your essay.

Include the number of sources required for your assignment.

Format for a Webpage:

Author, A. (Year, Month, Date Published). Article title. Retrieved from URL

In the first paragraph of your annotation, summarize the main points of the source. Be sure to summarize the main points using your own words. Do not copy and paste information directly from the source.

In the second paragraph of your annotation, explain how the source is relevant to your paper. Explain how this particular source will help you develop one or more of the main points in your essay.

Include the number of sources required for your assignment.

Format for an Ashford Textbook (online edition)

Author, A. (Year published). Title of book: Subtitle of book (edition, if other than the first)
[Electronic version]. Retrieved from from URL

In the first paragraph of your annotation, summarize the main points of the source. Be sure to summarize the main points using your own words. Do not copy and paste information directly from the source.

In the second paragraph of your annotation, explain how the source is relevant to your paper. Explain how this particular source will help you develop one or more of the main points in your essay.

Tip 1: Note that references are listed in alphabetical order.

Tip 2: When including a URL for an online journal, you must search for the journal's home page and include this in your reference entry. You may not include the URL found through your university library, as readers will not have access to this library.

Tip 3: Delete these "hints" (purple boxes) before turning in your final assignment.

Need more help formatting other types of sources?

Ctrl+Click: Formatting Your References

IF YOUR
Paper Matters
we own all the good words

50% OFF ON ALL ORDERS

LIMITED TIME ONLY

PREMIUM QUALITY | NO PLAGIARISM | DEADLINE DRIVEN

ORDER NOW

The banner features a central illustration of a woman in a red top and blue skirt holding a large yellow pencil, standing next to a white clipboard with a checklist of four items, each with a red checkmark. The background is a dark blue gradient with stylized trees and clouds.