

Thesis Statement Book Review Examples

1. THESIS: Although Ivanhoe by Walter Scott was not my favorite historical fiction, I did learn three important things as I read this novel. This story taught me about the Medieval Ages, Cedric the Saxon, and tournaments.

2. THESIS: As I read A Child Called It, an autobiography, by David Pelzer, I realized that David, the main character, and I have a lot in common. We both have been abused, and we both been hurt by words and abandoned.

3. THESIS: After I read The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain, I recommended the book to my friends. This book is great because Huckleberry and his friend Tom get into a lot of trouble without trying and they go on fun adventures.
