

GLOBAL RESOURCING PARTNER ANNOUNCES NEW HIRE PATRICK MORELLI

Miami, FL, July 6, 2017 – Miami, FL – Mughal & Associates announces a new hire in the company's Client and Customer Success Practice; Patrick Morelli joins the organization as Senior Client Delivery Manager.

"I am truly looking forward to being a part of an established market leader in the recruitment and executive search space," Morelli says. "I am excited to become a contributor to the growth of M&A."

Morelli brings over 10 years of recruitment and client management experience within the technology industries along with a strong grasp on the South Florida and New York City markets. Originally from the New Jersey/New York City area, his business background began as he studied at West Virginia University in Morgantown, WV, with his interests including anything sports related, especially cheering on the Yankees.

As the Senior Client Delivery Manager, Morelli will support strategic initiatives for sales and client acquisition and work closely with the partners and the professional search recruiters to manage relationships across all industries within the technology space.
